Rating Action: Moody's Ratings assigns a Aa2 rating to Johnson City, TN's Series 2026A GO Bonds

24 Apr 2026

New York, April 24, 2026 -- Moody's Ratings (Moody's) has assigned a Aa2 general obligation unlimited tax (GOULT) rating to Johnson City (City of) TN's proposed $17.635 million General Obligation Refunding Bonds, Series 2026A. Concurrently, we have affirmed the city's Aa2 issuer rating and the Aa2 rating on its outstanding GOULT bonds. The outlook is negative. Post issuance the city will have approximately $265 million of debt outstanding.

RATINGS RATIONALE

The Aa2 issuer rating reflects a material near term drawdown of governmental reserves related to a fiscal 2025 lawsuit settlement. As of fiscal 2025, the city's available fund balance equaled 30% of annual revenues; however, the increase from 27% in fiscal 2024 largely reflects the reclassification of monies within the capital projects fund and the educational facilities debt service fund from restricted to committed. Absent this reclassification, available fund balance would approximate 25% of revenues. Available reserves are projected to remain stable in fiscal 2026 despite an estimated additional $2.7 million lawsuit payment, following the city's $27 million payment in 2025 that significantly reduced its reserves. The city also maintains approximately $3.5 million of cash in its capital projects fund that may be transferred to the General Fund with commission approval, providing additional financial flexibility. Management anticipates rebuilding unassigned General Fund balance beginning in fiscal 2027.

The rating also considers the city's growing economic base, supported by solid full value per capita ($154,000 in fiscal 2025), despite below average resident income levels. Long term liabilities remain manageable at 121.1% of fiscal 2025 revenues and are expected to increase moderately in fiscal 2027 with anticipated new debt issuances, though liabilities are not expected to exceed 200% of revenues.

The absence of distinction between the Aa2 issuer rating and GOULT rating reflects the city's general obligation full faith and credit pledge.

RATING OUTLOOK

The negative outlook reflects an expected decline in governmental reserves and liquidity in fiscal 2026 due to the payment of an outstanding lawsuit. Uncertainty surrounding the city's ability to rebuild fund balances to prior levels will remain over the near term given further potential lawsuits and if reserves are not replenished, downward rating pressure could occur.

FACTORS THAT COULD LEAD TO AN UPGRADE OF THE RATINGS

- Increases in available fund balance ratios above 35% including improved general fund balance
- Increase in resident incomes above 100%
- Long-term liabilities around 100% of revenue

FACTORS THAT COULD LEAD TO A DOWNGRADE OF THE RATINGS

- Failure to rebuild unassigned general fund balance following lawsuit payout.

- Further significant lawsuits which negatively impact the city's financial position
- Increase in long-term liabilities above 200% of revenue.

PROFILE

REGULATORY DISCLOSURES

For further specification of Moody's key rating assumptions and sensitivity analysis, see the sections Methodology Assumptions and Sensitivity to Assumptions in the disclosure form. Moody's Rating Symbols and Definitions can be found on <https://ratings.moodys.com/rating-definitions>.

For any affected securities or rated entities receiving direct credit support/credit substitution from another entity or entities subject to a credit rating action (the supporting entity), and whose ratings may change as a result of a credit rating action as to the supporting entity, the associated regulatory disclosures will relate to the supporting entity. Exceptions to this approach may be applicable in certain jurisdictions.

For ratings issued on a program, series, category/class of debt or security, certain regulatory disclosures applicable to each rating of a subsequently issued bond or note of the same series, category/class of debt, or security, or pursuant to a program for which the ratings are derived exclusively from existing ratings, in accordance with Moody's rating practices, can be found in the most recent Credit Rating Announcement related to the same class of Credit Rating.

For provisional ratings, the Credit Rating Announcement provides certain regulatory disclosures in relation to the provisional rating assigned, and in relation to a definitive rating that may be assigned subsequent to the final issuance of the debt, in each case where the transaction structure and terms have not changed prior to the assignment of the definitive rating in a manner that would have affected the rating.

Moody's does not always publish a separate Credit Rating Announcement for each Credit Rating assigned in the Anticipated Ratings Process or Subsequent Ratings Process.

Regulatory disclosures contained in this press release apply to the credit rating and, if applicable, the related rating outlook or rating review.

Please see <https://ratings.moodys.com> for any updates on changes to the lead rating analyst and to the Moody's legal entity that has issued the rating.

Please see the issuer/deal page on <https://ratings.moodys.com> for additional regulatory disclosures for each credit rating.
